

AT THE 'VILLE.

Mrs. George Thompson and children, Louis and Nathan, have been visiting Mrs. Church, an aunt, at Westmoreland, N. H.

A large picnic party took a trip to Burke mountain, Wednesday, and about 25 climbed the mountain. The day was an ideal one, and the picnic greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Eaton, of Springfield, Mass., were among last week's visitors in town.

Roy Gage of Lyndon was married at Waterbury Centre, August 22, to Miss June Roy, of that place. It was a very pretty church wedding, the ceremony being performed by the bride's father, Rev. Ozro Roy. A reception followed at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Gage will make their home in town, where they are both well known and popular young people.

The last fusion rally of the campaign was held Saturday evening in Music Hall with G. H. Pape of Barre, and A. B. Rowley, of Richmond, as speakers. Music by the Lyndonville band.

There will be a kindergarten here this fall, opening October 1. Those wishing to send children will please notify Mrs. B. E. Polson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Balch and daughter Gracie, of St. Johnsbury, were in town Friday, and attended the golf picnic, while Mrs. Anna Pearl and son Dean were here all the week.

Charles Taplin of Barton has been visiting his grandfather, Charles Rogers. There were no services at the Congregational church Sunday, to give the members an opportunity to hear the excellent sermons delivered at the camp-meeting.

Lyndon Institute reopened Tuesday, with the same teachers as last year. The attendance is good and every prospect points to a successful year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Willard of Boston have been visiting several weeks at E. L. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Springfield, Mass., are the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Campbell.

Labor Day was pretty generally observed as a holiday, the railroad shops, the bank and many of the places of business being closed. At a hotly contested ball game in the afternoon the Sheffield beat the home team by a score of 10 to 8.

Lights once more, and great rejoicing thereat, after about a week of darkness. Some quite important and substantial repairs were made at the plant in the interim, a new bulkhead put in at the dam, a new shaft and a number of other things of minor importance, but great improvements nevertheless.

Camp Meeting.
Camp meeting closed Sunday after a very successful session of two weeks. New seats were put in, the houses repaired, the grove cleaned up quite a good deal, and the looks of the grounds are much improved in consequence. Superintendent Folsom has forbidden the dumping of any more refuse on the grounds, and with further improvements promised, it is hoped that this grove, so pretty and in such a convenient location, may be kept in a more attractive condition. Many brilliant and able speakers were heard during the fortnight, the attendance was large and orderly, and the meeting on the whole was one of the most successful for years. On Sunday the speaker of the morning was Rev. J. A. Dixon of Bradford, and in the afternoon and evening Rev. Ora Gray preached. The music was led by George A. Fisher, the singer who accompanied A. Gray, and his music formed a great attraction during the meeting. These officers were elected Thursday: President

General Debility

Day in and day out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself. Food does not strengthen.

Sleep does not refresh.

It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers.
